READING COMPREHENSION: QUESTIONS 16-30

INSTRUCTIONS FOR QUESTIONS 16 THROUGH 21

Each question contains a paragraph describing a criminal or vehicle law from the Maryland Annotated Code. Read each paragraph carefully and select best answer from the choices provided. You do not need any training or experience as a police officer to answer these questions.

16. A person may not unlawfully disturb the public peace by: (1) purposely keeping anyone else from moving freely along any street, highway, or railroad; (2) disturbing any neighborhood with unreasonably loud, noises; (3) swearing or using obscene language on a street or highway and it can be heard by people passing by; or (4) holding someone and attempting to sell the person something against his/her will.

Which of the following is an example of “disturbing the public peace”?

- a. John’s car breaks down in the middle of the street and it is partially blocking traffic.
- b. Mike mows his lawn at dawn on a Saturday morning.
- c. Steve stops Susan at an airport terminal and won’t let her pass by until she listens to his sales pitch about a product he’s selling.
- d. Robert and Janet are having a daytime argument inside of their house, and it is loud enough for people walking by their home to hear them.

17. According to Maryland law regarding the display of vehicle registration plates: (1) a vehicle requiring two plates must have one plate attached in the front and one plate attached in the rear; (2) a vehicle requiring one plate must have that plate attached in the rear; (3) all plates must be free from foreign materials, securely fastened, horizontal, and clearly visible; (4) no vehicle may display expired plates from another state; and (5) no vehicle may display plates issued to a different owner or vehicle.

Which of these examples would be permissible based on the law described above?

- a. Ken is required to one plate on his pickup truck. The plate holder on the back of his truck is broken, so he has mounted the plate on the front.
- b. James has just moved to Baltimore, MD from York, PA. He has current registered PA plates on his car, and plans to obtain Maryland Plates within the next 30 days.
- c. Katie has misplaced the plates for a car she owns, so Bill is letting her borrow his old plates until her new plates come in.
- d. Mary is required to display two registration plates on her car. The plate attached to the rear of her car was badly damaged in an accident and can no longer be read clearly. However, she still plans to drive the car since the front plate is still legible.

18. According to Maryland vehicle law, if a traffic control device is not in operation: (1) a driver must stop their vehicle when a pedestrian is crossing the road in a crosswalk on the same side of the road or from a nearby lane on the other side of the road; (2) a pedestrian may not suddenly move into the path of a moving vehicle which is so close that the driver cannot yield; (3) if a vehicle has stopped at a crosswalk or intersection for a pedestrian, a driver of a vehicle coming from the rear may not pass the stopped vehicle; and (4) if a pedestrian crosses a roadway at a place other than a crosswalk or intersection, the pedestrian must yield the right-of-way to vehicles.

Based on the law described above, which of the following statements is correct?

- a. Pedestrians crossing an unmarked street between intersections must yield the right-of-way to vehicles.
- b. Pedestrians always have the right-of-way.
- c. If a vehicle stops for a pedestrian, other vehicles traveling in the same direction are not required to stop.
- d. If a traffic control device is in operation, pedestrians must always yield to vehicles.

19. According to Maryland law, the driver of a vehicle involved in an accident resulting in an injury to any person must: (1) stop the vehicle near the accident without blocking traffic and stay there until he has given first aid to anyone who is injured and/or called for an ambulance; (2) give his name, address, vehicle registration number, and license upon request to the injured person, anyone else involved in the accident, and the investigating police officer; and (3) report the accident to the nearest police station if no one is able to receive this information.

Based on the law described above, which of the following statements is correct?

- a. It is against the law to leave the scene of an accident without stopping.
- b. If a person is involved in an accident, the person is required to stop all traffic until help arrives.
- c. If a person is involved in an accident resulting in injury to another, the person is required to take the injured person to the nearest hospital.
- d. All accidents must be reported directly to the nearest police station.

20. According to Maryland law regarding funeral processions: (1) a funeral procession may move through a red light if the first car in procession entered the intersection when the light was green; (2) when a funeral procession is moving through a red signal, no vehicle may enter the intersection if it means crossing the path of the procession; (3) the procession always has the right-of-way; and (4) vehicles in a funeral procession must have the headlights on in order to have the privileges listed. Based on the law described above, which of the following statements is correct?

- a. Funeral processions do not have to stop for stop signs.
- b. In order to keep together, funeral processions are advised to have headlights on.
- c. When a funeral procession is moving through a red light, the cars must alternate with those cars that have the green light. Vehicles returning home after a funeral have the right-of-way.
- d. Vehicles returning home after a funeral have the right-of-way.

21. Unless there is a special danger that requires a lower speed, the maximum speed limits in Maryland are: 30 miles an hour on highways in a business district; 35 miles an hour on divided highways in a residential district; and 55 miles an hour on most other divided highways. The maximum speed limit must not exceed 55 miles an hour on any highway that is not an interstate highway or an expressway.

Based on the law described above, which of the following statements is correct?

- a. minimum posted speed limits cannot be less than 30 miles an hour
- b. the maximum speed limit on residential divided highways is 35 miles per hour
- c. all divided highways must have a speed limit of 55 miles per hour
- d. all expressways must have a speed limit of 55 miles per hour

INSTRUCTIONS FOR QUESTIONS 22 THROUGH 24

Read the passage below and use the information provided to select the best answer each question.

Maryland law requires individuals who have been convicted of a felony, or certain misdemeanor burglaries, to submit a DNA sample to authorities. Local corrections facilities are responsible for ensuring that conviction data is accurate and the state is notified of those individuals in custody whose DNA must be collected. Once DNA has been collected for the initial qualifying conviction, it does not need to be collected for future convictions. If a required DNA sample collection did not occur, the record must be noted to ensure that a sample is collected if the person returns to custody.

22. Which of the following statements is correct?

- a. Only inmates convicted of felonies must submit DNA samples.
- b. DNA must be collected after each conviction.
- c. Local corrections facilities are responsible for conviction data that has been entered incorrectly.

23. Of the following individuals, who must give a DNA sample?

- a. Ted has just been convicted of a felony; DNA was not collected after his last felony conviction.
- b. Jane is convicted of misdemeanor disorderly conduct.
- c. Joe has been arrested for suspicion of felony assault.
- d. Rita has just been convicted for felony armed robbery; she provided a DNA sample when she was convicted of the same crime 10 years ago.

24. What must happen if the necessary collection of an individual's DNA does NOT occur prior to his/her release?

- a. The individual must be taken back into custody to allow for the DNA collection.
- b. The individual's record must be noted so that collection may occur if he/she is convicted on another felony charge.
- c. Corrections officials must notify the state so the state may attempt to collect the DNA the next time the person returns to custody.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR QUESTIONS 25 AND 26

Read the passage below and use the information provided to select the best answer each question.

The following are policies regarding warrantless searches:

- A Police Officer may search a person or a person's property when that person provides the officer with voluntary verbal permission (i.e. consent) to do so. A person may withdraw his or her consent to a search of his or her property at any time, and the search must cease. Any evidence that is found before the person withdraws his or her consent may be retained by the officer.
- Police officers may search a vehicle, or other property, if they know that a crime has been committed in that location and if the location has been classified as a crime scene. They are allowed to search the scene during a time period that is deemed reasonable to conduct an investigation of the crime and to gather evidence.

25. Police officers are called to the scene of an alleged sexual assault. A teenage girl claims that her boyfriend sexually assaulted her in her bedroom. The officers plan to search her bedroom for any additional evidence. How much time may the officers take to search the bedroom?

- a. 24 hours to gather all the necessary evidence.
- b. 48 hours to gather all the necessary evidence.
- c. A reasonable time period to gather necessary evidence and conduct an investigation of the alleged assault.
- d. The officers have unlimited time to gather necessary evidence of the alleged assault.

26. Officers Smith and Davis go to the apartment of Debra Griffith, a former girlfriend of a man who was reported missing several weeks earlier. Although the officers do not have a search warrant, they ask Debra if they can search her apartment and she agrees. During the search, Debra becomes nervous and angry when they go through some of her personal items. She asks them to stop the search and leave her apartment. Officer Davis continues to look through a box he was searching and finds an item that may be a key piece of evidence. Will the officers be able to use the item as evidence?

- a. No, because Officer Davis did not have Debra's written permission to take it the item with them.
- b. No, because Officer Davis found the piece of evidence after Debra asked them to stop the search and they do not have a search warrant.
- c. Yes, because Debra had given the officers permission to search her apartment when they arrived.
- d. Yes, because the officers immediately ended their search after Debra asked them to stop.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR QUESTIONS 27 AND 28

Read the passage below and use the information provided to select the best answer each question.

When a crime is reported, discovered, or detected, information is needed not only to catch criminals but also to convict them. Police officers will often need to question both cooperative and uncooperative people in order to gather the important information they need.

Interviewing and interrogating are substantially different techniques of questioning. Interviewing is a technique used by a police officer to obtain general information regarding a crime from witnesses. Interrogating is a questioning technique used to obtain specific information regarding a crime from a person who has been defined as a suspect. Interrogation is normally carried out at the station by experienced investigators. A suspect must be advised of his or her rights when interrogative questioning changes from “investigatory” to “accusatory” in nature.

The chances of successfully convicting criminals are directly related to the thoroughness of the information gathered from a police officer’s preliminary investigation.

27. Which of the following statements is correct about interviewing?

- a. Interrogating and interviewing are basically the same techniques.
- b. Interviewing is a technique of questioning used to obtain general information regarding a crime from witnesses.
- c. Only cooperative people can be interviewed; uncooperative people must be interrogated.
- d. Interviewing is a technique of questioning used to obtain specific information regarding a crime from suspects.

28. At what point must a suspect be advised of his or her rights?

- a. At the beginning of the first interview
- b. During an investigatory interview
- c. During an accusatory interrogation
- d. At any time the suspect is questioned by police

29. Shoplifting is defined as a theft of goods from a store, shop, or place of business during business hours where the suspect takes the good(s) past the last point of opportunity to pay for the merchandise without attempting to offer payment. Which situation below is the best example of shoplifting?
- a. Terrence walks in the grocery store and gets a piece of candy. He takes it to the counter and discovers he has no money. The cashier tells him to go ahead and keep the candy this time. Terrence leaves the store and eats the candy.
 - b. Stephanie walks into Best Buy to get a pack of triple-A batteries. She sticks the small package in her coat pocket while she looks at the computer display. After a few minutes, Stephanie turns to leave the store, but before she reaches the door, she remembers the batteries and turns back to the counter to pay for them.
 - c. Joyce enters Walgreens Pharmacy to pick up a prescription. After paying for the medicine, she walks over to the makeup counter where she finds a tube of lipstick she likes. She puts the lipstick in her purse and walks out of the front door of the pharmacy.
 - d. Peter and his mother are grocery shopping. Peter picks up a candy bar, peels off the wrapper and hands it to his mom. When they reach the checkout counter, Peter walks out of the store with the unwrapped candy bar while his mother puts all the groceries including the wrapper on the stand for checkout. The cashier uses the wrapper to ring up the price of the candy bar along with the other groceries.
30. Trespassing is defined as a person may not enter or crossover private property or board the boat or any marine vessel of another after being notified by the owner or owners agent not to do so. Which situation below is the best example of trespassing?
- a. Mr. Smith invited Julie on his boat, Julie shows up and Mr. Smith is not there.

Make dark marks that fill the oval completely.

Erase cleanly any mark you wish to change.

Make no stray marks.

CORRECT MARK

INCORRECT MARKS

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Answer all of the questions in this examination booklet.
2. Mark all your answers on the answer sheet – next to the number, which is the same as the number of the question being answered. Mark your answers in the same way in which the correct example above is answered
3. Make sure your marks do not go outside the spaces outlined for them.
4. Make no stray marks on the answer sheet.
5. If you wish to change an answer, erase completely the mark in the blackened space and mark your new answer under the appropriate letter.
6. Each question has only one correct answer. Mark only one answer for each question on the answer sheet. If you mark more than one answer for a particular question, the question will be counted wrong.
7. No question is meant to be a trick question. Read each question carefully before you select an answer.
8. Answer all of the questions, since your score is based upon the total number of questions that you answer correctly. If you are not sure of the answer, you may guess.
9. When you complete the examination, check your answer sheet to make certain that you have answered every question. If you complete the examination before time is called, you may hand in all of your materials to the monitor and leave.

IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS RAISE YOUR HAND SO THAT THE MONITOR MAY HELP YOU.

READING COMPREHENSION: QUESTIONS 16-30

INSTRUCTIONS FOR QUESTIONS 16 THROUGH 21

Each question contains a paragraph describing a criminal or vehicle law from the Maryland Annotated Code. Read each paragraph carefully and select best answer from the choices provided. You do not need any training or experience as a police officer to answer these questions.

16. A person may not unlawfully disturb the public peace by: (1) purposely keeping anyone else from moving freely along any street, highway, or railroad; (2) disturbing any neighborhood with unreasonably loud, noises; (3) swearing or using obscene language on a street or highway and it can be heard by people passing by; or (4) holding someone and attempting to sell the person something against his/her will.

Which of the following is an example of “disturbing the public peace”?

- a. John’s car breaks down in the middle of the street and it is partially blocking traffic.
 - b. Mike mows his lawn at dawn on a Saturday morning.
 - c. Steve stops Susan at an airport terminal and won’t let her pass by until she listens to his sales pitch about a product he’s selling.
 - d. Robert and Janet are having a daytime argument inside of their house, and it is loud enough for people walking by their home to hear them.
17. According to Maryland law regarding the display of vehicle registration plates: (1) a vehicle requiring two plates must have one plate attached in the front and one plate attached in the rear; (2) a vehicle requiring one plate must have that plate attached in the rear; (3) all plates must be free from foreign materials, securely fastened, horizontal, and clearly visible; (4) no vehicle may display expired plates from another state; and (5) no vehicle may display plates issued to a different owner or vehicle.

Which of these examples would be permissible based on the law described above?

- a. Ken is required to one plate on his pickup truck. The plate holder on the back of his truck is broken, so he has mounted the plate on the front.
- b. James has just moved to Baltimore, MD from York, PA. He has current registered PA plates on his car, and plans to obtain Maryland Plates within the next 30 days.
- c. Katie has misplaced the plates for a car she owns, so Bill is letting her borrow his old plates until her new plates come in.
- d. Mary is required to display two registration plates on her car. The plate attached to the rear of her car was badly damaged in an accident and can no longer be read clearly. However, she still plans to drive the car since the front plate is still legible.

18. According to Maryland vehicle law, if a traffic control device is not in operation: (1) a driver must stop their vehicle when a pedestrian is crossing the road in a crosswalk on the same side of the road or from a nearby lane on the other side of the road; (2) a pedestrian may not suddenly move into the path of a moving vehicle which is so close that the driver cannot yield; (3) if a vehicle has stopped at a crosswalk or intersection for a pedestrian, a driver of a vehicle coming from the rear may not pass the stopped vehicle; and (4) if a pedestrian crosses a roadway at a place other than a crosswalk or intersection, the pedestrian must yield the right-of-way to vehicles.

Based on the law described above, which of the following statements is correct?

- a. Pedestrians crossing an unmarked street between intersections must yield the right-of-way to vehicles.
- b. Pedestrians always have the right-of-way.
- c. If a vehicle stops for a pedestrian, other vehicles traveling in the same direction are not required to stop.
- d. If a traffic control device is in operation, pedestrians must always yield to vehicles.

19. According to Maryland law, the driver of a vehicle involved in an accident resulting in an injury to any person must: (1) stop the vehicle near the accident without blocking traffic and stay there until he has given first aid to anyone who is injured and/or called for an ambulance; (2) give his name, address, vehicle registration number, and license upon request to the injured person, anyone else involved in the accident, and the investigating police officer; and (3) report the accident to the nearest police station if no one is able to receive this information.

Based on the law described above, which of the following statements is correct?

- a. It is against the law to leave the scene of an accident without stopping.
- b. If a person is involved in an accident, the person is required to stop all traffic until help arrives.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR QUESTIONS 22 THROUGH 24

Read the passage below and use the information provided to select the best answer each question.

Maryland law requires individuals who have been convicted of a felony, or certain misdemeanor burglaries, to submit a DNA sample to authorities. Local corrections facilities are responsible for ensuring that conviction data is accurate and the state is notified of those individuals in custody whose DNA must be collected. Once DNA has been collected for the initial qualifying conviction, it does not need to be collected for future convictions. If a required DNA sample collection did not occur, the record must be noted to ensure that a sample is collected if the person returns to custody.

22. Which of the following statements is correct?

- a. Only inmates convicted of felonies must submit DNA samples.
- b. DNA must be collected after each conviction.
- c. Local corrections facilities are responsible for conviction data that has been entered incorrectly.

23. Of the following individuals, who must give a DNA sample?

- a. Ted has just been convicted of a felony; DNA was not collected after his last felony conviction.
- b. Jane is convicted of misdemeanor disorderly conduct.
- c. Joe has been arrested for suspicion of felony assault.
- d. Rita has just been convicted for felony armed robbery; she provided a DNA sample when she was convicted of the same crime 10 years ago.

24. What must happen if the necessary collection of an individual's DNA does NOT occur prior to his/her release?

- a. The individual must be taken back into custody to allow for the DNA collection.
- b. The individual's record must be noted so that collection may occur if he/she is convicted on another felony charge.
- c. Corrections officials must notify the state so the state may attempt to collect the DNA the next time the person returns to custody.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR QUESTIONS 25 AND 26

Read the passage below and use the information provided to select the best answer each question.

The following are policies regarding warrantless searches:

- A Police Officer may search a person or a person's property when that person provides the officer with voluntary verbal permission (i.e. consent) to do so. A person may withdraw his or her consent to a search of his or her property at any time, and the search must cease. Any evidence that is found before the person withdraws his or her consent may be retained by the officer.
- Police officers may search a vehicle, or other property, if they know that a crime has been committed in that location and if the location has been classified as a crime scene. They are allowed to search the scene during a time period that is deemed reasonable to conduct an investigation of the crime and to gather evidence.

25. Police officers are called to the scene of an alleged sexual assault. A teenage girl claims that her boyfriend sexually assaulted her in her bedroom. The officers plan to search her bedroom for any additional evidence. How much time may the officers take to search the bedroom?

- a. 24 hours to gather all the necessary evidence.
- b. 48 hours to gather all the necessary evidence.
- c. A reasonable time period to gather necessary evidence and conduct an investigation of the alleged assault.
- d. The officers have unlimited time to gather necessary evidence of the alleged assault.

26. Officers Smith and Davis go to the apartment of Debra Griffith, a former girlfriend of a man who was reported missing several weeks earlier. Although the officers do not have a search warrant, they ask Debra if they can search her apartment and she agrees. During the search, Debra becomes nervous and angry when they go through some of her personal items. She asks them to stop the search and leave her apartment. Officer Davis continues to look through a box he was searching and finds an item that may be a key piece of evidence. Will the officers be able to use the item as evidence?

- a. No, because Officer Davis did not have Debra's written permission to take it the item with them.
- b. No, because Officer Davis found the piece of evidence after Debra asked them to stop the search and they do not have a search warrant.
- c. Yes, because Debra had given the officers permission to search her apartment when they arrived.
- d. Yes, because the officers immediately ended their search after Debra asked them to stop.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR QUESTIONS 27 AND 28

Read the passage below and use the information provided to select the best answer each question.

When a crime is reported, discovered, or detected, information is needed not only to catch criminals but also to convict them. Police officers will often need to question both cooperative and uncooperative people in order to gather the important information they need.

Interviewing and interrogating are substantially different techniques of questioning. Interviewing is a technique used by a police officer to obtain general information regarding a crime from witnesses. Interrogating is a questioning technique used to obtain specific information regarding a crime from a person who has been defined as a suspect. Interrogation is normally carried out at the station by experienced investigators. A suspect must be advised of his or her rights when interrogative questioning changes from “investigatory” to “accusatory” in nature.

The chances of successfully convicting criminals are directly related to the thoroughness of the information gathered from a police officer’s preliminary investigation.

27. Which of the following statements is correct about interviewing?

- a. Interrogating and interviewing are basically the same techniques.
- b. Interviewing is a technique of questioning used to obtain general information regarding a crime from witnesses.
- c. Only cooperative people can be interviewed; uncooperative people must be interrogated.
- d. Interviewing is a technique of questioning used to obtain specific information regarding a crime from suspects.

28. At what point must a suspect be advised of his or her rights?

- a. At the beginning of the first interview
- b. During an investigatory interview
- c. During an accusatory interrogation
- d. At any time the suspect is questioned by police
